

CASA JARDIN SECRETO

Set on historic Calle Aldama, just steps from El Jardin and the unmistakable pink Parroquia de San Miguel Arcangel, Casa Aldama places you at the heart of San Miguel de Allende while offering an extraordinary sense of privacy and seclusion behind its historic facade. From the moment you enter, the house reveals a remarkable dialogue between old-world San Miguel and sophisticated contemporary design. Original colonial character, traditional stone, cantera details, exposed wood beams and boveda ceilings are thoughtfully paired with refined furnishings, natural textures and carefully curated interiors. Every room feels intentional, elegant and deeply connected to its surroundings. The architecture was conceived by renowned architect Erik Lans, while the interiors were designed by...
