

CAJAS DE LUZ

Cajas de Luz | San Miguel de Allende A rare opportunity has emerged in San Miguel de Allende: Cajas de Luz, one of the significant residential works of Mexican architect Manuel Cervantes, is being offered by its original owners for the first time. Known architecturally as Cajas en Penumbra and featured in El Croquis 233, the home brings together exceptional architecture with a surprisingly warm and private way of living. Set within mature gardens overlooking San Miguel de Allende, the residence unfolds gradually through a series of interconnected spaces, courtyards and terraces, creating moments that feel both intimate and expansive. Throughout the home, board-formed concrete, reclaimed ironwood, natural stone, steel and glass establish a rich yet restrained material...
