

CASA 4

Nestled amidst tranquil surroundings, this contemporary residence, designed by the acclaimed Mexican architect Ian Pablo Amores of Estudio IPA, exemplifies a seamless integration with its environment. Estudio IPA is renowned for creating architecture that authentically responds to its natural context, prioritizing the interaction of colors, shapes, and materials inspired by the surroundings. This philosophy is evident in the home's design, which skillfully captures the essence of nature from the rear, offering serene views of mature mesquite trees and lush natural landscaping. From the front, sweeping vistas of a private vineyard provide a picturesque and idyllic setting. The residence boasts a meticulously planned, contemporary layout, emphasizing open...
