

CASA AGNES LUPITA

There is a considerable difference between furnishing a house and finishing one. Casa Agnes Lupita is an extensively customized two bedroom residence in Jardines de Allende, transformed well beyond its original developer finishes through substantial architectural improvements, exceptional custom millwork, upgraded materials, intelligent storage, and beautifully conceived outdoor living spaces. The result is a thoughtfully finished home where considerable investment and attention to detail are evident throughout. European style double pane windows enhance comfort, reduce outside noise, and improve energy efficiency, while mini split climate control, whole house water filtration, upgraded lighting, decorative tilework, and refined plumbing fixtures contribute to an...
