

CASA ALFARO

A Home Where Tranquility and Location Come Together This extraordinary home combines two truly exceptional features: a privileged location and the tranquility of living in an environment designed to fully enjoy San Miguel de Allende. The property is located within La Escondida , a condominium development distinguished by its peaceful atmosphere, security, excellent quality in its construction materials, common areas and amenities, as well as the quality of the homes and apartments throughout the development. Adding to all of this is something that makes this community even more special: the wonderful people who call it home. Its location places virtually everything you need within easy reach. Just minutes away, you will find Malanquin Golf Club, the Municipal Sports...
