

CASA CRISTINA

Located in the well-established and traditional neighborhood of Los Frailes, this newly constructed residence seamlessly blends contemporary functionality with the distinctive architectural character of San Miguel de Allende. From the moment you enter, you'll notice the details that give the home its unique identity: handcrafted boveda ceilings that add architectural elegance and height, along with fine ceramic accents that reflect local artistry. The property enjoys abundant natural light thanks to its thoughtful orientation and well-placed windows. On the main level, an open-concept layout integrates the kitchen, dining, and living areas into a fluid and welcoming space ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. A comfortable ground-floor bedroom provides...
