

CASA DE LA GALERIA

Casa de la Galeria stands as unique example of modern Mexican architecture infused with the soul and warmth of colonial design. Set across more than 6,690 square meters of lush, meticulously landscaped grounds, the estate is nestled in Atotonilco, an UNESCO World Heritage site and designated Pueblo Magico, where rare privacy and immersion in nature blend seamlessly with a leisurely 15-minute drive to the vibrant heart of San Miguel's Centro. The property sits beside Galeria Atotonilco which houses one of the foremost collections of Mexican folk art in the country. The surrounding gardens unfold as a private botanical haven: mature, curated trees rise above flowering gardens and layered plantings, while winding brick pathways trace gentle lines through the landscape.
