

CASA GRACIE

A hidden garden residence along Salida a Queretaro located behind a traditional stone entry and tucked quietly within a lush garden compound, Casa Gracie offers a softer, slower side of San Miguel de Allende. Surrounded by winding pathways, mature greenery, and the quiet rhythm of a long-established colonial property, this two-bedroom residence feels removed from the city while remaining just minutes from Centro. Inside, the home embraces the warmth and authenticity that define classic San Miguel architecture. Boveda ceilings rise above the bedrooms, wood beams frame the living spaces, and handcrafted details throughout create a sense of character that cannot be replicated in newer construction. Fireplaces, textured walls, and an easy indoor-outdoor connection give the residence an...
