

CASA JINETE

Picture this: waking up to vineyards and mountains stretching out in every direction –and choosing finishes that’s entirely, unmistakably yours. Set in Vinedos San Francisco, one of San Miguel de Allende’s most sought-after communities, this property is a true blank canvas. It’s delivered in white box construction, meaning every finish: Floors, fixtures, cabinetry, tile... is still yours to choose. This is also the only development in the area where you can keep your own horses on your property. If a slower, more rural rhythm of life has ever appealed to you, without giving up modern design or comfort, this is about as good as it gets. Inside, the layout is open and generous: kitchen, living and dining areas flow together as one space, made for gathering with family or...
