

CASA LAGERFELD

Historic San Miguel de Allende boasts many unique residences, but none to match the architectural splendor of Casa Lagerfeld! Named in honor of Lagerfeld's favorite home, Villa la Vigie, it shares the same promontory height—here offering Centro views of the Parroquia instead of Monaco—and the same international design flair Lagerfeld was so famous for. Casa Lagerfeld offers the most unique finishes to be found in San Miguel, from custom hand-troweled wall finishes, stenciled floors, custom Etruscan murals, groin-vaulted ceilings, intricate antique Indian wood-carvings, special raised-relief tile work, custom-carved cantera, and an abundance of custom cabinetry, built-ins and fireplaces—one of which is an astonishing Biedermeier by locally renowned master craftsman Manuel Padron, whose scope...
