

CASA MORADA

Finding a home that truly balances shared family time with the need for personal space is a rare find. Casa Morada, located in the San Antonio neighborhood, offers an expansive layout that feels like a private sanctuary, designed to accommodate every member of the family with ease. The property is built on a generous double lot in the Villas de Tesoro development. Its design flows through a series of interconnected rooms, creating a comfortable, winding path that leads you from the central living, dining, and kitchen areas out into a tranquil, enclosed garden patio. On the ground floor, you will find two ensuite bedrooms that offer immediate convenience. Moving upstairs, a full guest suite awaits, complete with its own living area, walk-in closet, and a private entrance to a sun-drenched roof...
