

CASA PUERTA AZUL

Nature, Tranquility, and Mexican Charm in San Miguel de Allende
 Located in Los Huizaches, a charming residential community thoughtfully developed around a natural landscape filled with native huizache trees, this property is part of a unique setting where the homes were built in harmony with the surrounding environment. Situated in the lower section of Los Frailes, the home offers a peaceful atmosphere just minutes from the San Miguel de Allende reservoir—perfect for walks and enjoying nature. The architecture reflects authentic Mexican style, featuring warm stone and wood details that add character, elegance, and a welcoming ambiance. The garden is truly one of the property's highlights. Beautiful huizache trees frame the lot, creating a stunning natural backdrop. The...
