

COUNTRY ARBOLES

Country Arboles Historic Architecture, Mature Trees and Country Living in Montecillo de Nieto At the heart of Country Arboles stands a stone building believed to date from before 1800, with the architectural character of a small historic chapel. Its stone facade, arched entrance and traditional proportions reflect a building from another time, one that has been preserved and adapted into a home without losing the features that make it so distinctive. Located in Montecillo de Nieto, the property brings together two elements that are increasingly difficult to find in one place; a historic structure with its own identity and more than an acre of land surrounded by mature trees. The original building has been transformed into a main residence, rather than dividing the interior into conventional...
