

HACIENDA CASUSO

Behind the antique carved wooden doors of Hacienda Casuso, a world of history and artistry unfolds. Nestled in the peaceful neighborhood of Los Frailes in San Miguel de Allende, this extraordinary estate is more than a home—it is a living testament to craftsmanship, tradition, and beauty. The Hacienda spans more than 1,489 square meters of construction, set upon an expansive 5,440-square-meter estate. Every element of its design reflects the hand of master artisans: the magnificent hand-carved doors, the custom cabinetry in each bedroom, the hand-painted tiles, and the majestic Cantera arches. The stucco walls, softened by time, radiate permanence, while the natural stone facade and terracotta tiled roof ground the home in rustic authenticity. Inside, soaring beamed ceilings and...
