

HOTEL CENTRO

With 866 m² of land and 935 m² of construction, the property houses 21 unique rooms, each with its own personality and details that convey authenticity and warmth. Its atmosphere immerses visitors in the colonial experience of San Miguel, which has built loyalty and recognition among its guests for years. Beyond its current success, the true value of this hotel lies in its potential for expansion. The ground floor lends itself perfectly to the development of a high-end restaurant, capable of attracting both local residents and international tourists. Meanwhile, its terrace presents an exceptional setting ready to be transformed into a bar or event space, offering unique panoramic views of the historic center that only San Miguel can provide. This property represents far more...
