LAS FINCAS LOT 15

Some places are bought. Others are simply inherited. In an era where large tracts of land within established communities have become an increasingly scarce asset, an extraordinary opportunity arises within Las Fincas, one of the most exclusive and emblematic addresses in San Miguel de Allende. This two-hectare property is located within the city's first equestrian development, a carefully designed community for those who understand the value of space, privacy, and connection with nature. With only 22 properties, Las Fincas has maintained an intimate, discreet, and exceptionally exclusive character for over twenty years. Here, the landscape sets the rhythm of life. Sunrises illuminate the Los Picachos mountains, while expansive green areas, equestrian trails, top-notch...
