

LOTE LA FINCA

There are pieces of land that are bought. And there are others that are chosen to be kept for generations. In Las Fincas, one of the most exclusive and established country developments in San Miguel de Allende, one of those hard-to-repeat opportunities opens today: a 2.7-hectare plot within a private and carefully maintained equestrian community. Surrounded by expansive green areas, mature trees, and open views toward the countryside and mountains, this lot offers the feeling of being on an independent estate, while still enjoying the peace of mind of controlled access, security, infrastructure, and a strategic location just minutes from the city, with excellent connectivity to Queretaro and its airport. Las Fincas is known for its intimate and discreet atmosphere, few properties, large...
