

PREDIO RUSTICO LA ESPERANZA

This beautiful piece of land is situated on Camino a la Esperanza in Colonia La Esperanza. It is less than 2 km away (6 minutes) from the Old Railway Station, on the way to Cieneguita. The land has a total surface area of 19,784.47 m², with a frontage of 67 meters and a length of 344 meters. One of the great benefits of this property is that it is easily accessible from the road and is mainly flat with a slight incline towards the back of the property. This area is designated for residential land use; municipal public services such as sewage, drainage, water, and electrical can be installed. It is a perfect investment for someone looking to develop several homes in a serene natural environment, surrounded by beautiful greenery and still at a short distance...
