

PRIVADA SAN JOSE

Located at the peaceful end of a country road that serves only two other properties, this unique countryside home offers an exceptional sense of privacy, tranquility, and connection to nature. Just a short drive from the vibrant heart of San Miguel de Allende, this property sits on a generous lot of over 3,000 square meters, surrounded by tall trees, native plants, and open skies. The home itself features rustic charm, with adobe-style walls, wooden beams, clay tile floors, and artisan-crafted details throughout. Its inviting design blends harmoniously with the natural surroundings, with shaded outdoor sitting areas, and windows that frame garden views. This small enclave is home to a thoughtful mix of local and international neighbors who care deeply about the land and the community they...
