

SOLLANO 18

Nestled on the prestigious and historic Calle Diez de Sollano y Davalos (known as the fifth avenue of San Miguel), in the heart of San Miguel de Allende's UNESCO World Heritage Center, Sollano 18 presents a once-in-a-generation opportunity to acquire an extraordinary piece of Mexico's colonial legacy. Located on one of the city's oldest and most distinguished streets, this area flourished during the 16th and 17th centuries and quickly became an important stop along the famed Camino Real de Tierra Adentro, the historic Silver Route of New Spain. Over the centuries, the neighborhood became home to prominent families, clergy, and influential figures who helped shape the cultural and architectural identity that defines San Miguel de Allende today.
