

VILLA FRANCOIS

The architecture of Villa Francois is inspired by the villas of the French countryside, blending impressively into the landscape of this privileged area with stunning mountain views. Upon entering, the open spaces and high ceilings evoke a sense of freedom while maintaining a cozy, homely atmosphere. The gardens are beautifully designed, featuring a variety of flowers, fruit trees, and a vegetable garden where strawberries and other crops are grown. The children's play area and a charming terrace with access to the living room make it ideal for family gatherings or entertaining friends. The strategically located covered pool ensures perfect water and ambient temperature all year round. This house has been thoughtfully designed with respect for nature and the...
